Description

Experience the splendour and history of the Middle East with Traveldream's exclusive "Egypt and Jordan Discovered" tour

This 15-day journey offers a captivating exploration of two of the most culturally rich and visually stunning countries in the world, Egypt and Jordan. Starting in the bustling city of Cairo and concluding in the historic city of Amman, this tour promises a seamless and exhilarating adventure.

Begin your journey in Cairo, where you'll marvel at the timeless Great Pyramid and the enigmatic Sphinx of Giza. Continue your exploration of ancient Egyptian history in Luxor, visiting the awe-inspiring Valley of the Kings, the majestic Karnak and Luxor Temples, and the tranquil city of Aswan. Travel in comfort with convenient flights connecting Cairo to Aswan and Luxor, ensuring you spend less time in transit and more time soaking in the wonders of Egypt. A unique highlight of this tour is a two-night stay aboard a traditional Felucca, where you'll sail along the Nile, swim in its waters, and engage with the friendly locals. Rest assured, access to WC facilities is maintained during your Felucca experience, making it as comfortable as it is authentic.

The adventure doesn't stop there. You'll also spend two nights in the paradise of Dahab, relaxing and swimming by the Red Sea. For the more adventurous, there's an optional day trip to the famous Blue Hole, a diver's paradise teeming with colorful fish and vibrant coral reefs. The journey continues as you cross into Jordan, where the landscape shifts dramatically. Feel the thrill of a jeep safari in the stunning desert of Wadi Rum, known for its dramatic rock formations and vast, echoing expanses. Spend a night in a desert camp, enjoying traditional campfire dinners and the serenity of the desert night.

One of the most anticipated stops on this tour is the ancient city of Petra, often referred to as the Red Rose City. Carved into rose-red cliffs, every corner of Petra reveals a new marvel, from the iconic Treasury to the vast amphitheater. To top off your Jordanian adventure, visit the Dead Sea, where you can indulge in a rejuvenating mud bath and experience the unique sensation of floating in its salty waters.

This tour is designed for those who seek both cultural exploration and relaxation. You'll stay in carefully selected 5 and 4-star hotels, ensuring comfort and quality throughout your journey. With a group size ranging from 12 to 42 people, you'll enjoy a balance of social interaction and personal space, and with an age requirement of 18 to 60, it's perfect for adults seeking an enriching travel experience. All breakfasts, two lunches, and three dinners are included, allowing you to savor the local cuisine while also having the freedom to explore on your own.

Shape your adventure with optional experiences such as hot air ballooning over Luxor, camel trekking through the desert, exploring the Lost City of Petra by Night, or scuba diving in the Red Sea. This tour promises memories that will last a lifetime, offering a diverse mix of magical landscapes, cultural exploration, and relaxation. Whether you're drawn to the ancient wonders of Egypt or the breathtaking landscapes of Jordan, this journey through Egypt and Jordan will leave you with an unparalleled appreciation for some of the world's oldest cultures and most astounding sites.
