Nestled in the southwestern corner of England, Cornwall beckons travelers with its windswept moors, rugged coastlines, and timeless charm. As you join us on our Corners of Cornwall tour, prepare to be swept away by the allure of this picturesque destination.

Our adventure begins in the bustling metropolis of London, where we set out on a scenic drive towards the tranquil countryside. Leaving behind the urban bustle, we delve into the heart of Cornwall, where each twist and turn of the road reveals new wonders waiting to be discovered.

Our first stop brings us to the historic port town of Falmouth, a place steeped in maritime heritage and coastal beauty. Wander through its cobbled streets lined with quaint shops and waterfront cafes, immersing yourself in its centuries-old seafaring legacy. From the bustling harbor to the majestic Pendennis Castle overlooking the azure waters, Falmouth offers a glimpse into Cornwall's seafaring past.

Continuing our journey, we venture towards the charming village of Port Isaac, famously known as the setting for the beloved television series, "Doc Martin." Nestled amidst dramatic cliffs and rolling hills, Port Isaac exudes an old-world charm that enchants visitors at every turn. Stroll along its winding streets, adorned with whitewashed cottages and colorful fishing boats bobbing in the harbor, and savor the tranquility of coastal life.

As we traverse the rugged coastline, prepare to be mesmerized by the wild, jaw-dropping vistas of the Jurassic Coast. Carved by centuries of wind and waves, this UNESCO World Heritage Site showcases nature's raw beauty in all its glory. From towering cliffs to hidden coves, each vista offers a glimpse into the ancient forces that have shaped this remarkable landscape.

No journey through Cornwall would be complete without a visit to the magnificent Salisbury Cathedral, a testament to the enduring legacy of medieval craftsmanship and religious devotion. Marvel at its soaring spires and intricate stained glass windows, and delve into the stories that have unfolded within its hallowed halls for over 800 years.

As the sun sets on our eight-day adventure, take a moment to reflect on the wonders we've encountered and the memories we've created together. From the charming port towns to the untamed beauty of the coast, Cornwall has left an indelible mark on our hearts, beckoning us to return time and time again. So join us as we uncover the hidden gems and timeless treasures of this enchanting corner of South West England, where every twist and turn reveals a new delight waiting to be discovered.

Itinerary

Day 1

---

London (England)

After meeting the group in London, we'll come together for a welcome dinner. Here's to the start of an incredible adventure!

Meals: Dinner

Accommodation: Wellington by Blue Orchid (or similar)

Day 2

---

London Wells Dartmoor National Park

After breakfast, our first stop will be the tiny market city of Wells – known for its Gothic cathedral and peaceful Vicars' Close. After we've spent some time wandering the cobbled streets and medieval buildings with our Tour Leader, we'll have the opportunity to explore the magnificent Wells Cathedral at our leisure. Later, our path will take us from the quaint country lanes of Somerset to the heather and gorse-clad tors of Dartmoor National Park. Tonight, we'll enjoy another delicious dinner together.

Meals: Breakfast and Dinner

Accommodation: Two Bridges Hotel (or similar)

Day 3

---

Dartmoor National Park Port Isaac and Padstow Falmouth

Today we'll leave Dartmoor National Park for Cornwall's northern coast – starting with a stroll around Port Isaac, the fishing village made famous by the Doc Martin television series. Next, we'll travel on to Padstow: a picturesque port town with a charming centuries-old harbour. Here we'll have time to wander the winding streets and admire the sweeping estuary views, before enjoying a spot of lunch wherever takes our fancy. A traditional Cornish ice cream is a must for dessert! Finally, the lively seaside town of Falmouth awaits – our base for the next two nights.

Meals: Breakfast

Accommodation: Merchants Manor Hotel (or similar)

Day 4

Falmouth St Ives and St Michael's Mount Falmouth

After a hearty breakfast we'll pay a visit to Land's End – England's most westerly point – before setting our sights on St Ives. One of England's prettiest towns, take some time to meander the cluster of cobblestone streets, quaint seaside cottages and picture-perfect bays. Then, it's back on the mini-coach for a visit to St Michael's Mount, a tidal island just off the coast of Penzance. Here we'll discover the village and its medieval castle and gardens – which are full of treasures and stories from the past. Back in Falmouth, we'll enjoy an evening meal together and toast to a full day's worth of exploring!

Meals: Breakfast and Dinner

Accommodation: Merchants Manor Hotel (or similar)

Day 5

---

Falmouth St Austell Bay

There's a treat in store for the green-fingered today: we're off to explore Tregothnan Estate, one of Cornwall's largest estates and home to the first tea plantation in Britain. A member of the gardening team will give us a private tour of the grounds and the tea plantation, where we'll learn all about the only tea grown in England – with a chance to sample some of it for ourselves. Afterwards, we'll make our way to the St Austell Bay area where we'll have the evening to spend at our leisure.

Meals: Breakfast

Accommodation: Carlyon Bay Hotel (or similar)

Day 6

---

St Austell Bay

We have no set plans today, leaving you free to explore the sandy beaches and boutique shops of the St Austell Bay area at your leisure. You could visit the world-famous biomes of the Eden Project or uncover the world's largest private collection of maritime paraphernalia at the Charleston Shipwreck Museum – you certainly won't be short on things to do here!

Meals: Breakfast

Accommodation: Carlyon Bay Hotel (or similar)

Day 7

St Austell Bay Devon and Dorset Salisbury

Today we'll make our way south along the coast, before our road takes us through picturesque Devon and Dorset. We'll have some free time to follow in the footsteps of Jane Austen's heroines and take in sweeping views of the Jurassic Coast. Enjoy some free time hunting for fossils along Lyme Regis's sandy beaches before we move on to Salisbury – where a farewell dinner awaits.

Meals: Breakfast and Dinner

Accommodation: Milford Hall Hotel (or similar)

Day 8

---

Salisbury London

After one last breakfast together, we'll have the opportunity to explore the magnificent Salisbury Cathedral. Our journey will conclude upon returning to London.

Meals: Breakfast
